Arts in Action

*From the Desk
of
Edward J. Haggerty*

Why Focus on Retirement?

Retirement is one of the most important life events many of us will ever experience.

We all want to retire comfortably, but the complexity in building a successful retirement strategy can seem overwhelming.

But, it can be done relatively easily with the knowledge of the options that are available for your situation, and the commitment to execute a strategy that meets your needs and encompasses your goals.

Working with a team of dedicated professionals can be more suitable than “going it on your own.”

No single person has all of the answers, which is why we encourage you to take advantage of our complimentary consultation to see how we can best serve you.

Arts in Action

Talent On Display at Marion School

By Robert Chiarito

Usually the hallways of a school are a place for quiet. Children are urged to lower their voices as not to disturb the surrounding classrooms. But on Saturday, April 28, the halls of the Sippican School where anything but quiet as the school celebrated its Second Annual Arts in Action.

As visitors arrived at the school, many were greeted by the school's Principal Dona Mahoney who

The show was organized by Mattapoissett resident and ORR graduate Sarah DeMatos (seen here introducing the group), who is attempting to raise money and awareness for abandoned children in Africa. personally handed out maps and answered questions surrounding the day's events. Once inside visitors found themselves participating in what can only be described as one part school fair and one part street festival.

Over twenty artists booths lined the corridors of the Sippican School offering both art for sale and demonstrations of the techniques used in creating their work.

Left: Anna White, a volunteer member of the Rochester Historical Society, made a presentation about the town's rich history to members of the Grade 3 classes at Memorial School on Monday, April 30. Among the various topics covered by Ms. White and fellow volunteers were the first Native American settlers, how early Rochester residents dressed and ate, and what type of games

On the cover: A weeklong Book Fair and fund-raising effort at Sippican School in Marion concluded with the Second Annual Arts in Action event on Saturday, April 28. Artists, musicians and creative people of all types were on hand to provide a sampling of their talents in an effort to raise money and awareness for the school's library. Just inside the main entry area several volunteers were busy making balloon animals for wide-eyed children. Adding to the street festival atmosphere were the musical performances. Musicians were stationed at various points throughout the school treating visitor's ears as they viewed the many artistic creations.

Children participated in a variety of hands-on interactive art projects, which included Ukrainian egg painting and a mural project that combined student essays on their idea of America with painting and drawing skills to create several floor to ceiling American flags. The Sippican School Band hosted a café style luncheon of chili dogs and desserts with proceeds going to the band fund. Diners were serenaded throughout the day by musical ensembles consisting of students, staff and volunteer groups. The Art Department played host to a show of student and staff artwork. The student work included a variety of colorful gauze masks and paper mache bird sculptures.

Shoppers strolled through row after row of books in the school's main auditorium as the Sippican School Library held its book fair. The book fair offered a nice change of pace and a quiet spot where parents and children could sit with one another and read. A silent auction in the school's central hub offered the chance to win one of several pieces of original artwork or bundles of children's art supplies. CHIPs, the child identification program, was on hand offering parents the opportunity to make vital documentation of their child's identity in an atmosphere that was kid friendly, non-threatening and judging from the number of smiling little faces emerging from the process, fun. In the spirit of community which seemed to make up the heart of the event, many of those who attended the show made generous donations to local charities at a booth set up by the Sippican Food Pantry.

Sippican School's Arts in Action was a breath of fresh air. In a time when many communities and schools are cutting funding for arts programs, this school chose to throw open its doors and invite the public to join them in embracing the arts. If the large turnout is any indication, this event should have many happy returns in the years to come.

Swazi Aid Show Raises Money, Awareness By Robert Chiarito

Imagine this if you can. What if someone told you that there was a country, here on Earth, facing extinction? Not a species of birds or a rare frog in a particular habitat, but an entire country of people.

That is precisely the dilemma that faces the people of Swaziland, a small country in the southern most part of the African Continent. Is it possible to save a country from extinction? Sarah DeMatos, a recent graduate of Old Rochester Regional High School who is currently studying at Boston's Berklee College of Music, decided that she is one person who is willing to help this embattled country.

Sarah visited Swaziland last August and came away so touched and moved by what she found there she said, "On Thursday, August 3, 2006, I left the United States as one person, and I am proud to say today I am someone else." What Sarah found in Africa was a country with the globe's lowest life expectancy and one of its highest occurrences of AIDS. Ancient beliefs and practices have left the country so completely riddled with the HIV virus, that the United Nations has projected that the country will be extinct by the year 2040.

As is often the case in pandemics, children are often made to suffer some of the hardest consequences. The United Nations also estimates that because of death or abandonment about 140,000 children will be orphaned. The mortality rate is so bleak that in the average household in Swaziland the head of the house is no more than eleven years of age. It is against this backdrop of hopelessness that Sarah DeMatos found hope.

While on her trip she came across ABC Ministries, an organization that takes in orphaned children and babies. Ms. DeMatos, upon her return to the United States and her school decided to call upon her classmates and organized Swazi Aid. Swazi Aid is a grassroots organization that is trying to raise funds to help support the efforts of the ABC Ministries. Sarah organized a benefit concert last fall with the help and talents of her classmates raised about $1,000 dollars for the children's home. This weekend she returned home to Mattapoisett promoting the first of what is to be a series of concerts here in the South-Coast in conjunction with the Swazi Aid relief fund.

The first of show of the series took place on Sunday, April 29 at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church's Reynard Hall. After taking a few moments to thank the audience for coming and explaining what the task that she and the ABC Ministries were trying to accomplish, Ms. DeMatos introduced soul singer Joy and her band to the crowd. Joy led her six-piece band through a sizzling set of funk-tinged R&B. The singer's voice is reminiscent of a young Aretha Franklin and she sings with the bold confidence of a seasoned performer.

classic, "Just My Imagination," Joy gave the audience a hint of what to expect throughout the show as she said, "This is an old one you probably know that we took and messed around with a bit." True to her word, the band added funk elements and hip-hop beats to this and many of the other songs that they performed during their set.

If this show is a taste of things to come, the SouthCoast is in for some great music this summer in support of a very worthy cause. stepping off at 9:00 am, and the Tiara Classic 5K Run and Walk starting promptly at 9:30 am. There will be an closing Awards Ceremony at 11:00 am.

The idea for the event grew out of a group of friends, some of whom are runners, lamenting the fact that there was no regional running event on Mother's Day morning. "Volunteers came to me asking about organizing a road race that also supported something important in the community," said Kate Fentress, Director of the Women's Fund which will directly benefit from the event. "The Women's Fund, committed to the improving the lives of women and girls, and a Mother's Day event seemed the perfect choice to them."

According to Ms. Fentress, several of these local women had been traveling to a race event on Cape Cod, but they felt the need to have something closer to home to enjoy on Mother's Day.

"They put together an amazing committee of women from several different communities," Ms. Fentress said. "They went out and got a lot of sponsorship for the event. We have had an annual Mother's Day Appeal at the Women's Fund for the last four years — it's just been a letter sent out to people asking for donations to be given in honor or in memory of someone in their life. That's been a very successful appeal. People like the idea of honoring someone or giving in memory of someone. But it looks like the (road race) is going to be a huge success."

To date, Ms. Fentress said there are about 100 runners who have already registered for the May 13 race. "But we'd like to have 200," she admitted. "We'd like to have 300, but I'll be happy with 200. Knock on wood, if the weather is good, we should have a lot of last-minute (participants)."

Runners and walkers may walk in memory of or in honor of a special woman in their lives and all proceeds support the Women's Fund of Southeastern Massachusetts.

"Our family enjoys walking, biking and swimming together, and I am excited to spend Mother's Day morning running with my children and husband in Mattapoisett for the First Tiara Classic," said Mattapoisett resident Karen Browning. "It is a great way to promote healthy activities for women and we are also learning more about the program's the Women's Fund offers to women in the local communities. A lot of our friends enjoy running and we are looking forward to seeing everyone the morning of May 13."

Organizers are guided by a quote from Leigh Standley that seems to sum up their vision: "I am fairly certain that given a cape and a nice tiara, I could save the world."

The mission of the Women's Fund is to support programs that develop, promote and protect the mind, body, spirit and choices of women and girls. The vision of the fund is to transform the lives of women and girls by supporting equal access to education and sustainable

- Letter from SEMASS/Covanta regarding the status of the plant in Rochester in the aftermath of the recent fire in the facility's tipping building on March 31. "The facility remains closed, and no waste is being processed at the facility at this time," the letter stated. "Initial damage assessments have indicated the facility closure will continue for at least several weeks and may continue for an additional extended period of time before the facility is fully operational and able to process your waste."

- Notice from Plymouth County Mosquito Control advising of the spraying program plans for the summer months. Those interested in checking on the scheduled application of adulticide should call 1-508-747-8742 between May 1 and October 31 for the latest updates.

- Letter from Thomas Figuerido regarding flooding problems on his property located at 631 Point Road. Mr. Figuerido claims the installation of new pavement in or around the year 2000 changed the pitch of the road and has caused water to accumulate in front of his property.

"I have already spoken to DPW Superintendent Rob Zora and he's going to determine what can be done," Mr. Dawson said in response to Mr. Figueiredo's letter.

Under the Town Administrator's report, Mr. Dawson discussed the status of the town's webpage which has been "seriously out of date."

"We have received a proposal from a company called Virtual Town Hall and we will begin moving forward with revamping the town's webpage," Mr. Dawson said. "It's a project that's long overdue ... and in this day and age we really should be able to provide residents with a fully-functional website. We expect the updates to begin shortly. I would think no later than the end of the summer we'll have the website fully updated, maybe sooner."

Mr. Dawson also discussed some insurance issues with the board, beginning with the recent breakdown of the boiler in the Marion Music Hall. "I'm pleased to report we have recovered (just over) $8,000 to cover the boiler," he said.

Insect Bites

My dog came inside from his run with a number of 1/2 inch red marks on his belly that were shaped like bullseyes. Are these from deer tick bites? Does it mean that he will get Lyme Disease?

Because of the mild winter, this spring has been especially bad for black flies and biting gnats. These are the small flies that circle your head in the morning and evening. When they bite a dog, usually on the belly and ears where the hair is thin, they leave a characteristic bullseye shaped mark.

Is there a way to prevent him from being attacked by these flies?

Try putting Avon Skin So Soft on the areas that have a thin hair cover. Other insect repellents containing DEET may not be safe on your dog. Use them very sparingly, as on the ears only.

The board next approved one-day, all-alcohol licenses for the VFW Post 2425 (May 12); the Sippican Tennis Club (June 15, July 14, July 28, August 10, August 12, and September 7); and the Lockheed Martin Fishing Tournament (June 5). The board also voted to reappoint the following to the Memorial Day Committee: Rodney Hunt, Belmiro Barros, Joseph Zora, Ernest Halunen, John Robarge, Gardner McWilliams, Joseph Napoli, Ronald Barros, Robert Demeo, Jere Hill and Christopher Byron.

The board also received a request from the Richards-Auld family to have a granite bench installed at the Point Road Playground in memory of Joshua Garcia of Marion, who tragically lost his life in a motorcycle accident recently. The bench would be funded through private donations. "Mr. Garcia was an avid basketball fan and was recently named the basketball coach at Upper Cape Tech Regional High School," Mr. Dawson said. "They felt this would be a fitting memorial in his honor." With that, the board unanimously voted to grant permission for the bench installation as requested.

At 7:15 pm the board opened a Liquor License Hearing on behalf of Lighthouse Liquors to consider an alleged recent sale of alcohol to a minor at the establishment. Town Counsel Jon Witten was present for the hearing and was designated Hearing Officer by the board.

"It's a hearing pursuant to MGL Chapter 138, Section 33, regarding the sale of alcohol to an underage individual by Lighthouse Liquors," Mr. Witten explained.

According to the arresting officer, Detective Sergeant Craig Parker, on March 30 at about 7:30 pm he observed a vehicle in the parking lot of Lighthouse Liquors which he recognized as belonging to someone under the age of 21. He stopped and later observed the individual coming out with a 30-pack "suitcase" of beer which he put in the trunk of the vehicle. After stopping the individual, Detective Parker said the individual admitted to having purchased the beer at Lighthouse Liquors and was not asked for a proper identification, but he didn't want to get the owner in trouble.

"We have taken a proactive approach in the past," Police Chief Lincoln Miller said. "I believe this is a serious violation. There are only four forms of ID that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission (ABCC) accepts: a state-issued Driver's License, a state-issued ID Card, a valid Passport, or a Military ID. This is a first offense and we have not had a Liquor Law violation hearing in some time, so I would recommend we issue a severe letter of reprimand to be placed in (the establishment's) file."

"This is a very serious thing and because this is the first offense, I don't think we should go overboard on this, but I think (the owner) should understand the seriousness of this," Chairman Jeffrey agreed. "Based on that, I feel we could go along with the Chief's recommendation."

With that, the board unanimously voted to issue a stern letter of reprimand to Lighthouse Liquors as suggested by Chief Miller and Mr. Witten thereby closed the hearing.

Returning to regular business, Mr. Dawson informed the board he has been working with the Department of Public Works (DPW) and the Town Engineer to begin the previously-discussed Water and Sewer Rate Study at an estimated cost of $21,500. This all-encompassing study would be conducted by the firm of Tata and Howard, Inc. "What they'll be doing is gathering all this information and analyzing it ... so we understand where all the pieces fit together," Mr. Dawson said. "This is more of a fact-finding, analytical study."

"I feel comfortable with this, because there are a couple of areas I think need to be examined," Selectman Blanchette said.

"Tata and Howard, Inc. is a logical choice given their intimate knowledge of our water system," Mr. Dawson added.

With that, the board unanimously voted to engage the services of Tata and Howard, Inc. to conduct a complete Water and Sewer Rate Study for the Town of

ATTENTION DRIVERS

If you are involved in a collision you have the right to have your investment, your vehicle, repaired at a shop of your choice. Your insurance company may suggest a list of repair shops. Do not be persuaded by this list, it is not a guarantee of quality of services, nor does it limit your options. You want a shop who will work for you and with you to put your vehicle back to pre-accident condition. COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. is a licensed, bonded, registered repair shop with the state of Massachusetts. We work with all insurance companies to expedite your repairs. The important thing to remember is we repair the vehicle for you, our customers, not the insurance companies. So remember, if the need arises, contact COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. to get back on the road.

Upon a recent request from Richard Barnes to declare a "No Parking" zone in the 300 block along Front Street to the intersection of Route 6, Chief Miller said he recommends posting a "No Parking Here to Corner" sign from the area in front of the so-called Captain Hadley House (350 Front Street) to Route 6.

"Right now the question is the exiting from the Captain Hadley House onto Front Street," Chief Miller said. "I think a single sign would rectify that issue."

With that, the board unanimously voted to approve the Chief's recommended sign posting.

There being no further matters to discuss in Open Session, the board unanimously voted to go into Executive Session at 7:58 pm to consider contract negotiations and pending litigation. There would thereafter adjourn for the evening.

ten batters in five innings as the Cougars shortened the game to five innings under the mercy rule for the second game in a row. Nikki Thomas was the star once again pitching her second no-hitter of the week as Old Colony won 9-0 over Southeastern Regional Vocational Technical High School on Thursday, April 26. Thomas also collected three hits in four plate appearances. The Cougars record is now 5-1 on the season.

Playing on campus seems to agree with the Old Rochester Regional High School Baseball and Softballs Teams with each team scoring in double figures in each of their home games this past week as they began to play true home games for the first time in five years. The Bulldogs Baseball Team handed Fairhaven an 18-2 beating on Wednesday, April 25. Each player in the ORR starting line-up had at least one hit with George Valentgas and Andrew Martin's home runs leading the way. Pitcher Chris Hulton held Martha's Vineyard Regional High to one hit over six inning of work on Thursday, April 26 to lead ORR to a 10-2 win on their home field. Hulton was working on a no hitter as he entered the sixth inning where the long, tall senior lefty gave up an infield single ending his no hit bid. He finished the game with eleven strikeouts. Nick Martin had two hits and three RBIs for the Bulldogs and Andrew Martin connected for his third home run of the season. ORR is now 8-1 on the year with a record of 7-1 in SCC play.

Nye also was the winning pitcher as she pitched a complete game striking out ten, for her third win of the year. Amber Zablowsky had four hits and drove home three runs while Laurie Galavotti and Hope Benjiman chipped in with three hits and two RBIs each. The Lady Bulldogs returned to the ORR campus and celebrated with a 12-0 victory over Martha's Vineyard Regional High School. Amber Zablowsky was one out away from pitching a perfect game when she gave up a clean single to right. She retired the next batter and ended the game with five strikeouts. ORR is 6-3 on the season with 5-3 record in SCC play.

The Lady Bulldogs Track Team won 13 of 14 events they dominated Dighton Rehoboth High School 81-55 on Thursday, April 26. Stephanie Reusch led the ORR charge with wins in three events. Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

(Mattapoisett Selectman Steve Lombard) was right in stating that the Town Moderator conducts our Mattapoisett Town Meetings. But registered voters control the Town Meetings. The voters have done this successfully for 150 years. In years past when problems of this nature have arose a new Moderator was elected.

I am hopeful that our Town Meeting will last long enough to lower our tax bills instead of rushing through it. Four, five or six nights could be grounds for a much needed, sizeable tax drop in the Mattapoisett tax bills. Town Meeting is our, the people's, Town Meeting. Mattapoisett belongs to the people. We,

"I'll take you to your Color Consultation in my new RED car," said my brother. We soon realized there was not room enough for both of us and my 8 inch by 8 inch color samples of all the Benjamin Moore Colors.

the people, must attend our Town Meetings. We must stand tall and proud to defend her (Mattapoisett) on her 150th birthday against all.

There are 19 articles slated for the Special Town Meeting warrant. Many more on the Annual Town Meeting warrant. It was too late to lock the barn door the day after the horse was stolen the night before. This is definitely a strong and loud wake-up call for Mattapoisett.

Let's spend some quality time at ORR Auditorium. The more time spent at Town Meeting, the less time spent at your workplace next year. Perhaps you could drop one of your two jobs. Only you can make a difference. It is not a sing to vote "No." Please attend Town Meeting this year. We all must work together to keep our taxes under control.

See you at Town Meeting May 14, 15 and 16 or however long it takes. The voters control Town Meeting!

Sincerely,
George P. Randall
Mattapoisett

To the Editor:

We are writing to support a new Fire Station in Mattapoisett because, for anyone who has been in the old building, the answer is obvious: the need is there. We feel the Town not only deserves this proposed upgrade, but the time has come to move forward in support of what we deem "essential services." Please attend Town Meeting this year on May 14 to hear the debate on this timely issue and then remember to cast your vote at the follow-up ballot election.

Sincerely,
Gary Jezierski, Chairman; Diana Harlfinger, Clerk;

we are now soliciting nominations for our fourteenth annual "Wanderer Keel Awards." The yearly community service honor — which is presented to one resident from each of the three central towns in our circulation area — will be announced in our May 24, 2007 issue and each winner will be the subject of a short feature highlighting their contributions to the local community. But The Wanderer needs your help in selecting these "unsung heroes."

The requirements are simple. Nominees must be legal residents of Mattapoisett, Marion, or Rochester (at least five years), and must have contributed in some way to the overall benefit of the community — either directly to town residents, or indirectly through efforts in promoting town activities, or working to keep the wheels of local government well-oiled. The only restriction is that these persons cannot benefit from their efforts in any other way — either financially or politically (hence, sitting elected officials are not eligible).

In doing this, we hope to applaud those who are rarely recognized for their countless hours of service and focus on the many people "behind the scenes" who remain otherwise anonymous but provide crucial support to many town functions. Like the keel of a ship which keeps the vessel from capsizing, the recipients of the Annual Wanderer Keel Award will be recognized for their stalwart efforts in keeping the community on an "even keel."

Past recipients of this honor have included:

Mattapoisett Garden Group

Here are some Gardening Ideas from the Mattapoisett 150th Garden Group:

April's showers lead to flowers, warmer weather, and planting our gardens, our window boxes, and our container gardens. This year, with Mattapoisett's 150th birthday celebration, we have even more reasons to clean up our yards, plant flowers and vegetables, and do something special during a year of birthday events and parties! That is what a group of dedicated gardeners have been planning: special garden cleanups and plantings for the Town's Birthday Celebration, and they encourage you to participate too, either helping with the town planting and garden maintenance schedule, or doing something special in your yard and planters.

So what kinds of special things might someone plant during a Sesquicennial Celebration Year? Really, the list is too long to publish in this column, and what you do depends on what else you have going on in your yard and gardens. However, for inspiration, the 150th Garden Group is hanging large baskets of red ivy geraniums, blue and red verbenas, red million bells and white bacopa in the Gazebo in Shipyard Park. These plants will do well in the fairly strong sun of the park, and the biggest challenge will be the winds coming in from the harbor which will demand daily watering of the baskets. Or, if you have shady locations, as our group faces for the window boxes they are installing on the North side of the Beach House at Town Beach, our red, white and blue theme will continue with red New Guinea impatiens and white impatiens, and blue lobelia, accented with the feathery touches of blue tapien verbenas and variegated vinca for texture and color contrast and interest.

Or, you could create a historical garden in your yard or portion of your yard. Early settlers in Mattapoisett most likely kept with the traditions of the formal flower garden in the front of the house, and the side yard, off the kitchen was the spot for the many practical flowers including herbs and medicinal plants as well as pretty flowers such as morning glories and marigolds. Many of the plants and flowers that we still love and plant today were grown by early gardeners in Massachusetts, among them, Hosta, Tiger or Day Lilies, Dahlias and Hollyhocks.

About the time of Mattapoisett's Birthday, in 1857, we were approaching the beginning of the Victorian Gardens, called the Era of Exaggeration for its beauty and endless beds of flowers and large parks. This was the beginning of the practice of "Bedding Out," or planting large beds of masses of flowers which have given their name to Bedding Plants that we plant in the spring as annuals.

So the possibilities for your yard and planters are endless. The key is to do something special that you feel will make a statement about your yard and our Town's beautiful heritage. Participate in the next 150th Garden Group's meeting on May 16 at 7:00 pm at the Mattapoisett Inn where you can volunteer to help with our planting and maintenance of the plants during the summer. Join us at the Birthday Celebration on May 20 at Town Hall for birthday cake and examples of window box and planter gardens to give you inspiration. The important thing is to get started and make this year's gardens something special. Happy Gardening!

Anniversary Celebration are seeking residents to get a team together and are asking them to brainstorm ideas for the Cultural Diversity Celebration to be held on Tuesday, August 7 — just one day of events in the weeklong 150th Celebration. Now, how do they turn their dreams into reality?

The hard part comes when organizers tally up who and what is needed to make those dreams come true. Of course! They need you — Mattapoisett friends and neighbors who are willing to help as artists, artisans, musicians, dancers, singers, cooks, costume makers, banner-makers, business owners and, above all, volunteers who will commit some time to help set up, assist, and clean up. Your help is really needed and much appreciated.

Following is a schedule of some of the events that have been planned (note: changes can still be made if anyone has additional ideas):

The Cultural Diversity Celebration is a multicultural family event featuring arts and crafts, music and dance, games for children of all ages, a costume parade, and a sing-a-long by the light of the moon. It will take place in Mattapoissett's Shipyard Park and the Gazebo will be used for music and dance performances while the park grounds (weather-permitting) will provide space for a big tent under which there will be arts and crafts demonstrations and games. The event will be held on Tuesday, August 7 from 2:00 to 4:00 pm.

Musicians, artists, and crafts people are needed to share talents and skills with the group. It is hoped that this time slot will be filled with music and art reflecting the town's various ethnic groups, vocations, and avocations throughout its 150 years of history. For example, the Gazebo could be a lively stage for Native American drumming and singing, sea chanteys from the whaling and fishing days, and folk song and dance which recall our ancestor's homelands, our agricultural and tourist pastimes, as well as music and dance of today.

Organizers are anticipating Shipyard Park being filled with artisans and crafters demonstrating wonderful talents with townsfolk and tourists alike. All residents — or their friends, family members or neighbors — who know how to wrap a sari, carve, weave, spin, blow glass, got its start? More on that later, but this August 7 Costume Parade is to be marched in his memory and honor. Get out your sewing machines, staplers, or glue guns. No need to be a tailor or seamstress. Patterns are available so you can design your own. The group is aiming for costumes that reflect the town's different heritages, as well as costumes which are historical; but don't limit yourself. Why not dress up your pet, your baby stroller, your bike, skateboard, wagon, boat or roller blades? Your imagination is the limit.

The parade will end at Shipyard Park with an old-fashioned Sing-Along by the light of the silvery moon. Anyone interested in being the song director? Organizers will also welcome any and all offers to help provide the drinks to "wet-our-whistles." And won't it be delicious if all of us make a dessert to share? Won't you please take out that treasured family recipe and whip up a batch for our dessert tables?

If you can help with any of these tasks, please call Luice Moncevitich at 508-758-2371 or e-mail Jenny Rosinowski at mattapoisetmango@aol.com.

Mattapoisett Land Trust

The Mattapoisett Land Trust (MLT) invites its members, and anyone interested in the local environment to participate on Saturday, May 5, in a series of activities to raise appreciation of the special characteristics of the region.

The day will begin at 10:00 am with a nature walk jointly sponsored by the MLT and the Rochester Land Trust on the Oldfield Farm Preserve in Rochester. The walk will proceed from the fields along New Bedford Road through the woods to the banks of the Mattapoisett River. Participants should dress appropriately for walking through wooded wetlands and are encouraged to bring binoculars to help identify the myriad songbirds that should be present during the spring migration. The Oldfield Farm is located on New Bedford Road approximately one mile west of North Street.

After the walk everyone is invited to a pot-luck lunch at the Friends' Meeting House on Route 6 in Mattapoisett — bring a dish to share and the MLT will provide drinks and dessert. Before lunch, however, we will have a presentation by student members of the ORR Environmental Studies Group led by Lynn Connor. The students will present the findings of their water quality study, a study that was partially funded by a grant from the MLT.

Following lunch, the MLT will hold a brief busi-

Boston Cancer Walk

Do you think you could walk sixty miles in three days? Two local Mattapoisett residents are going to attempt to do just that. Alice McGrath and her daughter, Alison McGrath, decided to make a very special commitment this summer. Not a commitment to one special person — but a commitment that will be meaningful for many people. They will be walking sixty miles in the Breast Cancer 3-Day Walk in Boston on August 3-5, 2007.

Cancer is a disease that touches everyone. It is difficult to find someone who has not experienced the personal pain of this diagnosis. This past November, Alice's husband and Alison's father, was diagnosed with a brain tumor. Alice's cousin has been fighting ovarian cancer for the past several years. Another cousin's husband is battling stomach cancer. Many of their friends are struggling through breast cancer.

"Although walking sixty miles is a challenge, the most difficult challenge is the fundraising required for each walker," Alice McGrath said. "Alison and I have committed ourselves to raising $2,200 each, a combined total of $4,400. Please consider making a fully tax-deductible donation to help us achieve this goal."

Farber Cancer Institute through its Jimmy Fund. PMC Kids Rides have raised nearly $268,000 since 1998 when the first unofficial PMC Kids Ride began. PMC Kids Rides involve young people in volunteerism and charitable giving, while providing a safe and fun opportunity for them to become involved in the PMC mission.

The PMC Kids Tri-Town Ride will start at 9:45 am on Saturday, May 19 at Center School, Barstow Street in Mattapoissett. There is a $10 registration fee. Fundraising is encouraged but there is no minimum dollar amount. Contributions can be made payable to the Pan-Mass Challenge. For more information, to register for the ride, or to volunteer, please go to <https://kids.pmc.org/mattapoissett>.

The Pan-Mass Challenge is a 192-mile bike-a-thon that draws over 4,000 cyclists from 30 states and six countries to ride across Massachusetts to raise millions of dollars for cancer research and treatment for Dana-Farber Cancer Institute through its Jimmy Fund. Now in its 28th year, the PMC generates nearly 50 percent of the Jimmy Fund's annual revenue. It is the most successful athletic fundraising event in the nation, as it raises and contributes more money to charity than any other. It is also the most efficient. In 2006, the PMC donated $26 million — 99 cents of every rider-raised dollar-directly to the Jimmy Fund. This year's PMC event is scheduled for August 4 and 5, 2007.

MOVIE REVIEW

Coming Soon

By Rob Gonsalves
www.robsmovievault.com

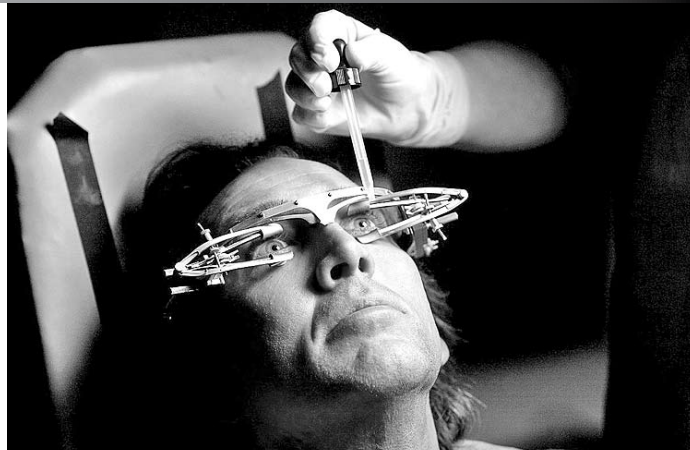

Next. Starring Nicolas Cage and Julianne Moore. Directed by Lee Tamahori. Running time: 96 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13.

Cris Johnson (Nicolas Cage) can see two minutes into his own future. This means he spends most of Next narrowly avoiding things — or not, if he so chooses. It's an amusing premise for an action-thriller, especially when Cris gets into a fight at a diner, knows when the punches are coming, and casually dodges them in a sort of lazy dance of evasion.

Cris also spends most of Next evading the FBI, represented by Julianne Moore in her unsmiling no-nonsense mode; even her hair is just barely red this time. After this and Children of Men, Moore may have done quite enough roles wherein she captures some poor sap and tells him he's the only one who can save the world, but at least she isn't playing to the rafters as she did in Freedomland. At certain points, especially when she dons an FBI cap, Moore could be sequelizing her Clarice Starling in Hannibal, without the West Virginia accent or humanity.

But back to the premise, in which Moore's FBI agent wants to find Cris because she believes he can see into the future and determine when some Euro-terrorists will set off a nuclear bomb in L.A. Sometimes the movie fools us by showing us one possible turn of events, then backtracking and revealing that it's one of Cris's visions. Early on, the FBI shows up at Cris's secret hide-out, where an uncredited Peter Falk — still going strong at 79, God bless him — shoots pool and crustily trades lines with an obviously affectionate Cage, who probably has as many Cassavetes and Columbo moments running through his head as the rest of us.

I'm never unhappy to see Nicolas Cage. He combines the ardent sincerity of James Stewart with the heavy-lidded proto-punk of Timothy Carey (track down a copy of Carey's The World's Greatest Sinner and you'll have to remind yourself you're not watching Cage). In Next he gives us a man harassed by his own gift, forced to be a cheesy Vegas magician in order to make a living with his talents. Cris also hits the local casinos, rakes in the cash, and gracefully foils suspicious security guards. Cage takes all this as an excuse to engage in bored virtuosity — Cris is in a rut, and there are no surprises in his life. Then he meets Liz (Jessica Biel), a radiant woman (literally — cinematographer David Tattersall consistently films her with her blonde hair backlit) he's seen in visions before. The boredom drains out of Cage's face and he looks at Biel the way he usually looks at his love interests, as if their beauty were killing and saving him at the same time.

Director Lee Tamahori has never really made good on the promise of his 1994 New Zealand debut, the bruising Maori drama Once Were Warriors. He's been a textbook example of what happens to foreign directors once Hollywood gets its hooks into them: Mulholland Falls, Along Came a Spider, Die Another Day, xxX: State of the Union — the litany just hurts. Next is probably his best work as a Hollywood gun for hire, which I realize isn't saying much, but at least Tamahori works here with some sense of pride and skill. Among the raft of movies inspired by the fiction of Philip K. Dick, Next isn't as dazzling as Blade Runner, as funky as A Scanner Darkly, as amusing as Total Recall, or as thrilling as Minority Report. On the other hand, it's not as dumb as Impostor or Screamers.

On occasion, including the climax (or anti-climax, or non-climax), Tamahori gets to have his cake and destroy it too — again, here's the possible outcome, and now here's Cris reacting accordingly. A sequence in which Cris leads an FBI team through the usual industrial hide-out, pausing exactly as long as necessary and then taking a quick left, is a well-sustained triumph of editing and staging. Eventually Cris's consciousness splits off into dozens of Nicolas Cages wandering around, testing each corner for snipers or assassins. Talk about multitasking. Next is obviously filler before the summer movie season officially kicks off, but its conceptual wit and its merciful brevity help it go down easy.

State Officials

By

Kenneth J. Fung

news@wanderer.com

With the recent news that a class of students from Pittsfield have proposed making Herman Melville's classic novel Moby Dick the "official state book" of Massachusetts earlier this week, it got me thinking initially about the other "official state (fill-in-the-blanks)" and, more importantly, just what significance these things even have to residents of our fair Commonwealth.

I have to confess, the only two things that really stuck in my mind from those long-ago slow-lesson days when the teacher would venture off into citing such trivia were the "official state bird" (the black-capped chickadee!) and the "official state flower" (the Mayflower, of course). But according to information provided via www.mass.gov, there's plenty of absolutely official, legislatively-sanctioned state things that we, as residents of Massachusetts, should not only be aware of, but also proud to point out to our out-of-state friends and family members.

For example, did you know our official state folk song is "Massachusetts" by Arlo Guthrie? Nope, me neither. I wonder if "Alice's Restaurant" was ever considered, since the character who inspired the song apparently lived here, too. Or, better yet, the Bee Gees' "Massachusetts," which, given NStar's recent rates, offers the more prescient lyric "And the lights all went out in Massachusetts." Now that reminds me of home.

There is an official state cat ... the Tabby cat, so deemed for no reason other than some schoolchildren requested it. Now, you would think Salem would petition for the black cat to become the official state cat, but I guess there are still some who frown upon that whole witch trial thing.

Apparently the official state dog is the Boston Terrier, which is a nice enough breed, I guess. But wouldn't something more indicative of the state's ample beach and boating resources and — I'm not too proud to admit — one of its most vibrant cultures be more appropriate? Yes, give me the Portuguese Water Dog! And that could be spun off into an official state mascot: Pablo the Portuguese Water Dog. I'm seeing a grinning Pablo behind the wheel of a fishing trawler pulling up a sizeable catch of fresh bay scallops as a logo. And we've already got Senator Ted Kennedy to personally endorse the breed.

Speaking of fish, the official state fish is, appropriately, the cod. Hence, Cape Cod. I can't really argue with that one, although I am curious as to where the once-vibrant herring (alewives) of this area fit into the mix. Cod is simple and easy, but wouldn't it be more fun to reveal the official state fish as the alewife? Friends might think you were referring to an intoxicated spouse.

Those still working the bogs around here will be pleased to know the official state beverage is cranberry juice, although there is oddly no mention of an official state berry or fruit. Hmm.

But wait ... lest you health-conscious individuals are gearing up to declare victory, the only other official state foods cited — if you discount cod, that is — are the official state muffin (the corn muffin, with extra butter please); the official state dessert (yummy Boston Cream Pie); and the official state cookie (the even yummiest chocolate chip cookie, first invented at the Toll House Restaurant in Whitman, MA). Thankfully, no one has petitioned to name the official state salad as of yet.

Getting back to that official state book idea, I'm not against Melville's behemoth taking the honors, although I might argue that the few people who have even attempted to make it all the way through the book's plodding prose would agree it's a bit of a bore. I'm more partial to something by Nathaniel Hawthorne (who, unlike Melville, was born in Massachusetts) or even Henry David Thoreau's Walden, the inspiration for which remains a state historic landmark.

And if the powers-that-be up on Beacon Hill have a little more spare time on their hands, I might also put in a pitch to declare an official state movie while they're at it. Now here's a category to debate and discuss endlessly, given the sheer volume of films that have originated from or were wholly produced within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Movies like Good Will Hunting, The Perfect Storm, Fever Pitch, The Witches of Eastwick, or even John Huston's classic film version of Melville's Moby Dick immediately come to mind.

But I'd have to go with the one movie that is indelibly linked to the state in which it was shot and took place: Steven Spielberg's classic Jaws. The film is all about having fun, splashing around in the bright open sunshine ... until that hidden danger lurking just beneath the surface comes up and bites you in the behind!

Now that sounds like Massachusetts to me.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Temper your typical Aries urge to charge into a situation and demand answers. Instead, let the Lamb's gentler self emerge to deal with a problem that requires delicacy.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You are aware of what's going on, so continue to stand by your earlier decision, no matter how persuasive the counter-arguments might be. Money pressures will soon ease.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) By all means, have fun and enjoy your newly expanded social life. But don't forget that some people are depending on you to keep promises that are very important to them.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You need to wait patiently for an answer to a work-place problem and not push for a decision. Remember: Time is on your side. A financial matter needs closer attention.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You now have information that can influence that decision you planned to make. But the clever Cat will consult a trusted friend or family member before making a major move.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Good news: You're finding that more doors are opening for you to show what you can do, and you don't even have to knock very hard to get the attention you're seeking.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your gift for creating order out of chaos will help you deal with a sudden rush of responsibilities that would threaten someone less able to balance his or her priorities.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Congratulations. Your energy levels are coming right back up to normal -- just in time to help you tackle some worthwhile challenges and make some important choices.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) The sage Sagittarian should demand a full explanation of inconsistencies that might be cropping up in what had seemed to be a straightforward deal.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A conflict between obligations to family and to the job can create stressful problems. Best advice: Balance your dual priorities so that one doesn't outweigh the other.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Don't guess, speculate or gossip about that so-called "mystery" situation at the work-place. Bide your time. An explanation will be forthcoming very soon.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Boredom might be creeping in and causing you to lose interest in a repeat project. Deal with it by flipping over your usual routine and finding a new way to do an old task.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can warm the coldest heart with your lyrical voice and bright smile. You find yourself at home, wherever you are.

Applications are now being accepted for the Marion Art Center's Summer Artcamp, now entering its twenty-second year. Artcamp is a unique program for children aged 4-1/2 to 9 years. Campers are grouped by age and participate in three different activities each day. Artcamp meets on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings, 9:00 am to 12:00 noon. There are three two-week sessions beginning July 10. Each session has a theme, and each day is different and original. At the end of each session, all campers participate in a multi-media performance. The children and staff create a script, original music, sets and costumes in a non-competitive atmosphere.

Master Plumber #9794 - Licensed Men

In this age of television, DVDs, computers, iPods, and myriad electronic toys, the philosophy of the Marion Art Center's Artcamp is to promote creativity and imaginative thinking through play. Each of the three activities provides opportunities. The Arts and Crafts area includes different stations where children can make things out of clay, shells, wood, beads and other interesting materials. There are large easels for painting, and guidance from the teachers ensures individual instruction and order. Another activity, Stories and Music, is presented live with singing and dancing and movement. The Theater activity encourages self-confidence, poise and memory skills through clever games, mime and improvisation in a nurturing environment. In addition, these activities promote responsibility, caring for one another and generally being thoughtful, helpful people. There are games, songs and stories at the beginning and end of each day. The Marion Art Center provides a snack halfway through the morning.

The staff includes certified teachers as activity heads with experienced counselors assisting them. Each group of twelve has at least two staff members guiding them. Space is limited. For more information please call the Marion Art Center at 508-748-1266 or visit the website: www.marionartcenter.org.

the face of human development," will be held on May 3 at 7:00 pm. The speaker will be Vin Malkoski, Senior Marine Fisheries Biologist with the Massachusetts Division of Marine Fisheries. He is responsible for coordinating the review of coastal alteration projects which may impact fish habitat, ranging from docks and piers to wind farms and LNG terminals. Vin also sits on the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission Artificial Reef and Habitat Committees, as well as the New England Fisheries Management Council's Habitat Plan Development Team.

Although harvest is heavily regulated, fish habitat and fisheries are also significantly impacted by ever increasing coastal development. Along the Massachusetts' coast, nearly 700 coastal alteration projects are reviewed annually by the Division of Marine Fisheries and each project produces individual impacts and contributes to a cumulative effect that is almost too big to measure.

Regional fish stocks such as Southern New England winter flounder and Area 2 lobster have crashed. The release of endocrine disrupters such as estrogen found in birth control pills from sewage treatment plants have resulted in male fish with female characteristics. Runoff from lawns and roads overwhelms our estuaries with nutrients. American eels and herring can't get up-stream to breed due to obstacles like dams or water withdrawal rates that are so high there is not enough water to swim. Eelgrass, bay scallops, and blue crab abundance has plummeted due to poor water quality.

Rochester Farmers' Market

The Rochester Farmers' Market will hold its Opening Day on Saturday May 5 and every Saturday thereafter from 8:00 am to 12:00 noon in the Plumb Corner Plaza, Exit 20 off of Route 195.

The Rochester Farmers' Market is a group of farmers, gardeners, pastry chefs, cooks and crafters dedicated to bringing local food to the community, since 2004. Join them for the best of the local harvest; they offer much more than local and organic produce. Selections include: annuals and perennials, potted and culinary herbs, fresh flowers, artisan breads and pastries, local fruit pies, cookies, granola, handpainted crafts, natural soaps and garden accents. They offer friendly and personalized service at every booth. Open every Saturday May 5 through October 27, rain or shine.

This year the Rochester Farmers' Market has gone high-tech with the launching of a new website: www.rochesterfarmersmarket.org. Stop on by for their exciting fourth season!
